“ Michael was a constant source of joy, conversation, and laughter when we were in college at Franciscan.

My first memory to come to mind of him was Halloween, 1989. Went to his off-campus house for a party. Most costumes (including mine) were lame. But then he stood up, with bare feet, brown jeans, a white furry vest and a long walking stick.

"What are you, Mike?"

He stood up. "I be the biggest, baddest a hobbit you EVER did see!"

I was chuckling for weeks afterwards. Mike had that kind of humor; it didn't always hit you right away, but then it did. And then it hit you again. And again. And then you'd chuckle, then guffaw, and...And then . . . he'd top himself with another comment, and then you started the whole thing all over again.

Playing for you in our rosary, Mike. God bless you, and Godspeed to Heaven.

“ Michael you will always be our big brother. At time we all didn't see eye to eye!
Now you are with mom and Tommy!
RIP we all love you and will miss you greatly.

“ I have nothing but good memories of being with the Cashman clan at their house:

...fishing off of the front steps when Agnes flooded Sunny Creek
...building our 'science shed' in the backyard without his dad's knowledge...I remember Tom Sr. asking where we got the wood (shhh) and was worried he would have to pay taxes on it as an out building.

Those, along with so many countless others, plus those 8 years at St. Joe's will always be cherished reminders that time goes by too swiftly, and we often fail to keep in touch, but the memories never fade.

Mike...may eternal light shine upon!!!

“ Sending love and prayers to Mina, the children, and all Mike's family. He was a good friend to me, and some of my fondest memories are the times I shared with him, Jean, Lissette, and Matt. You could not have asked for a better housemate. He took pride in his cooking-I remember some really fine stuffed pork chops. I will always think of him sitting in our living room, smoking his pipe. A man of fine humor, and a lover of simple pleasures. I am so glad he found such a fine wife, and got to have a big, Catholic, family. The world is a poorer place without him.
